SUMMER

TWENTY TWENTY THREE

SHELDON
HAMMOND

While October 31 is Halloween, November 2 is The Day of the Dead or el Día de los Muertos! This joyful Mexican holiday sees families welcome back the souls of their deceased relatives to honour and celebrate their memories and for a brief reunion that includes food, drink and celebration. The fiesta often includes tacos and is complemented with tequila and beers.

In Australia, Halloween is gaining in popularity. "Trick-or-treating" and Halloween parties are commonplace – and tacos served in Prepara Day of the Dead taco accessories will be sure to impress and be devoured by all!
