A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a large, round, woven basket. The basket is made of light-colored, natural fibers, possibly straw or reeds, woven in a tight, diagonal pattern. It has two handles made of reddish-brown leather, each attached to the basket with a circular leather patch and a small metal fastener. The basket is overflowing with a bouquet of dried flowers and greenery, including tall, feathery, light-brown seed heads and clusters of small, white, dried flowers. The background is a soft-focus outdoor setting with green foliage and a person wearing dark blue denim jeans.
